Trump Rejects Gun Grabbers for Secretary of State

National Association for Gun Rights urges Tillerson to drop U.N. treaty

Windsor, CO - The following comments were made by Dudley Brown, President of the National Association for Gun Rights, regarding the nomination of Rex Tillerson for Secretary of State.

“The consideration of Mitt Romney, David Petraus, Rudy Giuliani and Joe Manchin for Secretary of State was alarming, considering their strong anti-gun history. President-elect Trump’s rejection of these finalists is a win for the Second Amendment.”

“The National Association for Gun Rights is urging Mr. Tillerson, if he is confirmed as Secretary, to give his full-throated support for withdrawing the United States from the U.N. 'Small Arms Treaty.'”

“This anti-gun treaty is currently being used to impose globalist gun control restrictions on the right to bear arms in the U.S. and abroad. Removing the United States’ support for these attacks on the individual right to self-defense is consistent with our Constitutional principles, and shows the world that the U.S. will not surrender these rights to dictators, tyrants, or international bureaucrats.”
